16 March 2020

World Intellectual Property Organization receives Archer's international patent application

Archer Materials Limited ("Archer", the "Company") (ASX:AXE) is pleased to announce that the Company's patent application ("International Patent Application") filed under the Patent Cooperation Treaty ("PCT") to protect and commercialise its graphene biosensor technology intellectual property, has been formally acknowledged as received by the World Intellectual Property Organization ("WIPO").

Acknowledgement of receipt by WIPO of Archer's International Patent Application successfully concludes the PCT application lodgement process, and importantly, confirms the International Patent Application is formally compliant with the PCT prosecution procedure and has met the deadline to avoid abandonment of the application[†].
